PRESS COMMENTS ON DAVID

For Aladdin, (Pantomime). Dec 2005.

"A minimum of plot was used as a base on which to hang a feast of musical numbers, slapstick and innuendo together with some hilarious jokes, spearheaded by the Grand Vizier (David J Peel)".

Keir Dawson, *Spenborough Today

For A Christmas Carol. Dec 2007.

"This little used hall has magnificent acoustics which were shown to advantage by David Peel as the chain dragging ghost of Jacob Marley. This is live theatre at its very best".

Sylvia Thompson, *Keighley News

For Ladies Day, Oct 2007

Written assessment.

"This was Beautifully Handled! Your Irish accent was well sustained (Patrick), even during the frenetic "winning ride", and I believed in your growing friendship with Linda throughout this little scene - a lovely piece of ensemble acting."

Theatrical attainment comment:

"The Audience enjoyed it very much, laughing in all the right places, sympathising when sympathy was needed, and applauding at high points - e.g. the "winning ride" of Patrick, which was particularly well acted"

Bernard Riley, Wharfedale Festival.

For Valentines Feb, 2008

"David Peel opened the evening by giving Shakespeare's 'O Mistress Mine' a blues twist."

Jim Greenhalf, Telegraph & Argus.

For Animal Farm, Nov 2008

"Among a hardworking cast of nine, David Peel as Squealer and Ben Eagle as Napoleon excel as a couple of real swine, especially the snuffling, screeching, pleading and threatening squealer. They may look like laurel and Hardy but there's nothing comical about their antics."

For The Bells, Dec 2008

"The play only bursts into life in the dream sequence before the finale, when the demons inside Matthew's head take the form of an eerie courthouse trial. At which a mesmerist induces him to confess his crime. Music, lighting effects, a whispering chorus and not least Ben Eagle as the mesmerist in an enormous top hat, complimented David Peel's anguished antics as the tormented Matthew. A fine piece of ensemble acting..."

Jim Greenhalf, *Telegraph & Argus

For 2020 Vision, Aug 2010

"David Peel's portrayal of Adam as he re-experiences abuse from his childhood is traumatic to watch."

View from the Stalls, (Edinburgh Fringe 2010)

For *The Railway Children

"(Some of the scenes) came across very well, particularly a touching Perks birthday";

"Supporting characters were also very good, particularly David Peel as stationmaster Perks."

David Knights, *Keighley News

From the Stage Review of Black Beauty, Nick Haines 19th July 2012

For villainous elements, look no further than David Peel's mean miner Skinner.
